I travel to Venice several times per year, in all seasons and for different reasons: to take part in events such as the Biennale and Redentore, to visit landmarks and musea, to explore the city, to celebrate birthdays – or for no reason at all.

I love wandering around without the noise of cars, admiring the beauty of the palazzos, the culture and history, enjoying a spritz on a terrace, taking in the view of Canal Grande, ... It’s a place where I can forget about everything and enjoy every moment, even when it is hectic and crowded.

I started The Venice Insider in December 2015 to share my ideas and make sure everyone enjoys Venice as much as I do.
